7 Read Psalm 119:50 and write a letter of thanks to God for what you have lived and learned

8 Pray for abandoned and unloved children, ask God to change their situation and to feel loved by Him

9 Read Psalm 138, and thank God

10 Talk to God without asking for anything. Tell him your favorite part of the day

11 Read 1 Corinthians 13:4-7, write or draw all the characteristics of love that appear there

12 Along with yesterday's activity, ask God for his help so that you can show His love to others, as He teaches in His word

13 Stop by to help someone in need this week, ignoring all your excuses

14 Do two actions this week to show love, like helping an old man or giving water to a puppy

15 When with your friends, when you say goodbye, tell them that you are going to pray for them

16 Read 1 Peter 2:9-10, and ask God for unity among His people

17 Ask God for the parents of your school friends using verse 1 Peter 3:8

18 Take time to pray for a family member

19 Find the verse that is right in the middle of the Bible and memorize it

20 Draw a heart, paste or draw a photo of your family or friends, thank God for loving each one

21 Find 2 toys that you don't use and give them to the first unknown children you see

22 Read Psalm 28:7 and Praise God

23 Read 1 John 4:7 and make a picture or a collage, post it in your living room

24 Look at the stars at night and think about everything that God made

25 Pray to God so that the faith of his servants does not diminish, use the verse Luke 22:31-32

26 Make a list of your friends so you can ask God for their health

27 Ask God for His help to show His love to others, as the Bible says

28 Read Acts 16:31 and ask God for your whole family

BUT GOD DEMONSTRATES HIS OWN LOVE FOR US IN THIS: WHILE WE WERE STILL SINNERS, CHRIST DIED FOR US. ROMANS 5:8
