Find out how the dinosaurs fit on the ark.

1. Why are God's instructions so hard to follow? When God asks us to do something does he really expect us to do it?
2. Why does God let bad things happen? When bad things happen is God still in control?
3. How can I tell when it's God's voice that I think I'm hearing in my head?

I can be righteous when there is evil all around.

“Therefore put on the full armor of God, so that when the day of evil comes, you may be able to stand your ground...” Ephesians 6:13

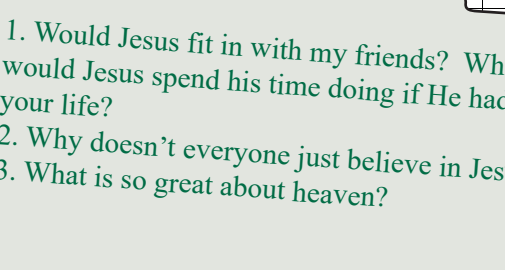

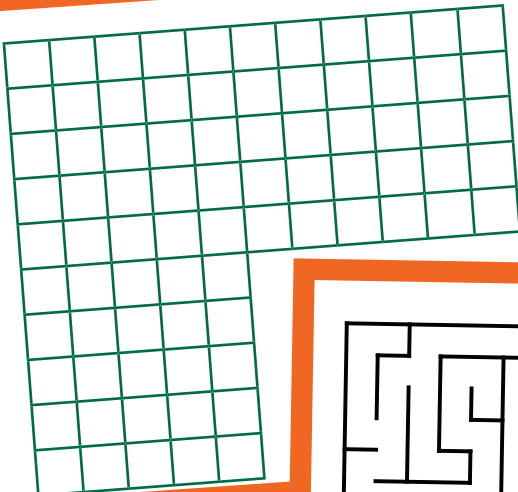

It can be hard to obey God when nobody else around you are obeying. Look for an opportunity to do what you know is right but isn't commonly done. Example: Give back the change when someone gives you too much because their math was incorrect.

A cartoon illustration of a notepad with a white surface and a black border. The notepad is tilted slightly to the right. It has three questions written on it in a green, handwritten-style font. The questions are numbered 1, 2, and 3. The notepad is placed on a background of orange and white horizontal stripes.

1. Would Jesus fit in with my friends? What would Jesus spend his time doing if He had your life?
2. Why doesn't everyone just believe in Jesus?
3. What is so great about heaven?

Wow, even more flies!

- ☐ I will make room for Jesus in my life.
- ☐ “Here I am! I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, I will come in and eat with that person, and they with me.” Revelation 3:20
- ☐ Ask Jesus to come into your life and be your boss. Confess to God that you can’t be good enough on your own and you need his gift of salvation. If you are already a Christian and remember when and where you prayed, tell a friend about it. Ask your friend if they’d like your help to pray and ask Jesus into their life too.

1. What happens when you run away from problems? In what ways have you seen people try to run away from problems? What happened to them?
2. What is God's plan for male/female relationships?
3. In what way does my faith make a difference to my friends?

God can make something good out of my bad situation.

“And we know that in all things God works for the good of those who love him, who have been called according to his purpose.” Romans 8:28

Determine to deepen your friendship with someone you know. To stick by their side through difficult circumstances requires you to help them. For example, you can help them study for a test, finish a chore quickly or practice a sport (catching baseballs, soccer ball foot work, basketballs that hit the net more often, etc.) Like Ruth, even when they say, “No, I can do it alone,” stick by their side and be a great friend and help them.

God asks me to be different than everyone else.

“Do not conform any longer to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind.”
Romans 12:2a

God may ask you to be different than others your age. Perhaps you are not allowed to watch the same movies as other friends or watch TV shows or listen to the same music, or wear the same clothing. Your assignment is to stop grumbling and thank your parents for asking you to be different. Perhaps you know someone whose parents ask them to be different, show them respect for following their parents and stand up for them when others mock them for their differences.

When I confess my sins, Jesus will forgive me.

“If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just and will forgive us our sins and purify us from all unrighteousness.” 1 John 1:9

Play in the dirt, look at your hands, imagine what you see is the dirt of sin on you. Now wash your hands, and imagine that confessing to Jesus what you've done wrong today is like getting washed clean. Pray and tell him that you are sorry for what you've done that wouldn't please Him, knowing only He can wash you on the inside like you washed your hands of the dirt.
