Philippians 4:6 "Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God."

1. If God asks me to do something brave like Ehud, what if I'm scared? Is it okay to be afraid?
2. What punishments have you received that were your fault?
3. Are wars good?

ASSIGNMENT

The homework for this week is to pray in your classroom (school) for some uncomfortable situation that you are going through, like with a classmate or even with the teacher. Do not close your eyes, nor say anything out loud because God can hear your thoughts and your heart. Pray for something practical and specific so that you see God's response.

It can be at home or at school. In addition, you can volunteer for some role in serving at church. If it seems scary, look up at the stars or the clouds and think about how big our God is who made them.

MEMORY VERSE:

Job 36:5 "God is mighty, but despises no one; he is mighty, and firm in his purpose."

1. What cases of discrimination have you seen in your class at school?
2. When I see discrimination, why should I get involved?
3. Why can't they leave me alone?

Now draw a picture of yourself:

God values you

- Day 3: Judges 16:4-10
- Day 4: Judges 16:15-22
- Day 5: Judges 16:23-30

The homework this week is to do a self-examination: How do you see yourself? Be careful not to compare yourself with others. If you feel of low value, remember that God made you just the way you are and that He values you and loves you. If you feel proud, remember that your trust is in Jesus, not in yourself. Each day this week, say out loud, "I belong to Jesus, and He values and loves me."

1. Can I do things my way?
2. Good people go to heaven, don't they?
3. Why should I trust God?

Your homework this week is to pay attention to the details of life. Are you obeying your parents? Are you getting along well with people? Have you forgiven everyone? Is there something you are hiding from your authorities (parents, teacher, pastor, etc.)? Choose a detail that you are missing, ask God for forgiveness and ask Him for help, confess it to an authority, then repent of it. Be careful to do the right thing with that detail for the rest of the week.

Also ask God to help you to do good things this week, and each time you think of something good to do, for example helping or encouraging someone, do it.

MEMORY VERSE:

Job 5:17 "Blessed is the one whom God corrects; so do not despise the discipline of the Almighty."

1. Does God also discipline whole families, cities, or countries? Do you have examples?
2. What was the last discipline you received, and why?

ASSIGNMENT

Memorize the phrase, "God disciplines me because He loves me." When your parent or a teacher punishes you for something wrong you do, repeat the phrase in your head: "God disciplines me because He loves me." If you find yourself thinking, "But I would never do something wrong! It was not my intention to do that!" take another look at what you did and note your real actions instead of your intentions. Accept the consequences without defending yourself.

2. Is it fun to be a Christian?
3. Why do my parents always tell me NO?

ASSIGNMENT

Your homework is to encourage someone every day this week, especially someone who goes to a different church than your church. If you see someone do good, congratulate them. If you see another child who believes in Jesus doing something wrong, remind them in a kind way to do the right thing: do not say, "you are bad," but instead say, "doing that does not please God. Maybe you can do this instead," and suggest something good they can do. Bonus: read part of the Sermon on the Mount in Matthew 5-7.

1. What things are we tempted to serve or worship apart from God himself?
2. What really are the other gods of other religions?
3. Can I take a vacation from God?

ASSIGNMENT

Think of your favourite thing, like a toy, clothes, bag, money, etc. Think about how you can serve God or benefit someone else with it. If it is a toy, you can share it and let someone play with it. If it is clothing and you have a younger sibling who could use it, let them borrow it. If it is money, give it to the church or to someone who needs it. If it is not something physical, for example a talent or plan for study, pray to God and say, "God, this talent, education, ability, dream, etc. is yours. Please guide me in how I can serve You and help others with it." Optional: if you live in a situation where your family or community worships a different god, try not to participate. If you are obligated to participate, pray to God giving Him your whole heart and asking Him for protection and help with the situation. God, who is bigger and more powerful than anything or anyone else, sees your heart.

“And without faith it is impossible to please God, because anyone who comes to him must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who earnestly seek him.” Hebrews 11:6
