WELCOME

... to the study where we are going to see the list of Heroes of the faith that is in Hebrews 11 and learn how we can have a life of Faith, since our spiritual life is more important than our physical life.

We are going to see men and women of the Old Testament who believed God, spoke with God and lived for Him. They are examples for us. Sometimes we will learn from the good things that people do and other times we will learn from their mistakes. Since we are talking about Faith in God, then let's begin by defining it. Do you know what Faith is? The main verse on which this study is based is in Hebrews 11:1.

"Now faith is confidence in what we hope for and assurance about what we do not see."
Hebrews 11:1

The Bible is a very important book for all Christians, but it is a big book. How many of you have read the entire Bible? It is so big that we could get lost and confused about the things that happened, not knowing where and when they happened. To help you in this aspect, we are also going to do a review of the Old Testament apart from the stories of Hebrews 11. We will apply all of this to our spiritual lives. We will learn the name of the books of the Old Testament and key events, placed in a historical order so that we do not get confused with dates and events. The main reason why it is important to study the Old Testament is that we can find wonderful stories and instructions that apply directly to our lives today.

Your assignment this week is to write about your dreams, the things you are hoping you can do with your life. Don't be afraid to have big dreams. They can be your favorite things, like being an astronaut, a swimmer, a soldier, a doctor, a business owner. Dream big—your God is big. Then ask God if there is something you should give up for Him, check with your teacher about it, then do it this week.

Your assignment this week is to write about your birthright, the life you can grow into. First, do not think that your family birthright is nothing. It has a lot of value. It may be as a mechanic or an engineer, or a nurse. You can make a difference in your neighborhood or in your country. But write about your spiritual birthright, too. You are a child of God and belong to his mighty family. God has given you various skills and desires, and he can work through those to bring you to success in his spiritual family. You can show this to your teacher, but you don't have to. Your heart is precious to God.

ASSIGNMENT

Your assignment this week is to remember what you thought about and wrote the last two weeks; your dreams and your birthright. Think about them again, but also think about how you can destroy them by doing certain things. If you are rebellious at home, it can seriously affect your natural birthright. If you dream to be a doctor or engineer, you can destroy that dream by not doing well in school. If your dream requires good health, you can destroy that dream for yourself with smoking, drugs, or alcohol. Write down how to live so you can achieve your dreams and your birthright.

Your assignment this week is to forgive people. All of us have experienced being mistreated. We can become angry about that and want revenge, or we can choose to forgive and trust God. This week whenever you think of how someone hurt you, also think, “I forgive them.” You don’t have to say it to the person, but you can say it out loud even when you are alone. That releases you from the anger you have, and you can be happy again. You are also like your heavenly Father, God, because he forgives all of us. The more you forgive people, the freer you will feel.

ASSIGNMENT

Your assignment is to write how you react when you sin, like hiding it or lying about it, another sin. Sometimes we punish ourselves by saying, “I’m not a very good person, so I shouldn’t be allowed to do this or that,” and get depressed. But the best response is to just admit that we have sinned and ask Jesus to forgive that sin. God doesn’t want you to be depressed about your sin. He wants to forgive it, so you can be free to encourage other people.

Those are the people you want to spend the most time with. Think about how you can change some of what you do every day so that you can spend more time with those friends. You already have some faith. This will help your faith grow, like watering a plant helps it grow.

ASSIGNMENT

Your assignment this week is to write about something you are rebelling against, something you don't want to do but should do, or something you want to do but shouldn't do. It could be something as simple as this homework assignment or it could be something your parents want you to do. Think of the damage this might be causing to your heart, your friends and family, or your future hopes and dreams of serving God. Then ask Jesus to forgive you and clean it from your heart, telling Jesus that He is your king. Keep track of whether the rebellion went away or not and repeat that prayer as much as you need to.

Your assignment this week is to think to yourself whether you are pretending to be a Christian to be part of a group or if you really believe in Jesus. If this is your first time or you are unsure, ask your Sunday school teacher how you can join God's family by believing in Jesus. If you have already accepted Jesus, then say something nice this week to someone who is different from you, like complimenting their outfit or the way they play games well.

Your assignment this week is to write about something you are hiding from God and from others and why you are hiding it. Then think about how that is affecting you. It hurts your fellowship with God, and that is not good. But, just like at Ai, it hurts your class and the people you are following Jesus with. For some reason they might not be able to figure out, they are not as effective, not as happy, or not as friendly as a group as they would like to be. You know what to do. Confess that sin to Jesus and to your parents or a trusted teacher or pastor. Ask God for forgiveness and watch for the difference His forgiveness makes.
