Choose a classmate from your school or neighborhood who is in need. If it is appropriate, ask your parents for help to bring him fruit, cereal, or something to eat-- enough for him and his family. Carry extra food in your backpack to share. Remember that you can do this even with the person doing the cleaning at your school.

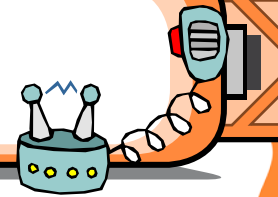

Use one of the words from the list to complete the sentences. Put an X on the unused words.

- 4000 Bread Rocks Fed Mercy
Anger Fish Time Multitude 100

I didn't know...
A great _____ followed Jesus.
Jesus fed _____ people,
With seven loaves of _____ and some _____.
Jesus had _____ on the multitude and _____ them.

Write down three things you have done which demonstrated mercy like Jesus had.

Now, I know....

Answer the questions according to the Bible story.

Write in the following square where you first knew Jesus personally and a brief note about that moment.

Who did Jesus find at the well?

Why should we not judge anybody?

SALVATION AND ETERNAL LIFE FOR ALL

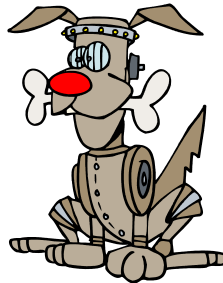

What is the gift Jesus offers us, according to John 4:4-15?

While Jesus was offering her living water, where were his disciples?

HOMEWORK

Interact with a problem boy or girl in your school room, or with the immigrant boy or even of another religion. Do not allow prejudice to keep you away. Give him a greeting in the morning or ask him how his day was. If you dare, share some of your food and don't be surprised if their reaction is negative. Try it during the week and then talk to your Sunday school teacher about what happened.

1. How can I have a better relationship with people I don't like?
2. What if I associate with someone who does not have a particularly good reputation?
3. Should I imitate everything that Jesus did?

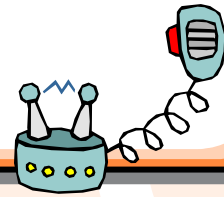

MEMORY VERSE

Romans 12:16 "Live in harmony with one another. Do not be proud, but be willing to associate with people of low position. Do not be conceited."
